Dear Dr. Burleigh -

Thank you very much for your letter of March 8. Your explanation and added information, was very helpful and much appreciated. I am not quite used to thinking in this idiot, so please forgive my stupidity at not seeing the obvious! -

I shall go to Piscataway at the first opportunity and do some investigating there - It's a pleasant drive - W. Burleigh, I mean! -

Yes, there are two large volumes on the Conger family in the city library - also about 15 volumes of "Congressional Record" which contain reports of "Conger Society" However, I have never spent an afternoon there going (all since 1920)

over them - some issues have no more than one sentence on Conger - but the only thing I found was the statement wrote you about John, Sabra & Rachel
- also the one on "David the Tory" -

Perhaps a more discerning eye than mine would detect other things - but I am learning! - And shall gather them all again, guided by the valuable information you have provided -

My mother, Frances Conger Earle Steinwinter will be in hapaw visiting <sup>Frederick Conger</sup> brother of Edward - all next week, until Sunday - She also plans to see Mrs Van Alstyne at the Historical Society - The phone at the Conger house is 1895 - If you found yourself in the town, I'm sure she would be delighted to see you - Meanwhile, thank you for your help and patience! - Best regards -
Robert M Earle

Mr. Robert M. Earle,

New York City, N. Y.

Dear sir:

Many thanks for your comments in your letter of 2nd inst., and for your further commitments re the Congers and Maxwells. You will be hearing from me at a later date.

I am disturbed by your comments in the latter part of your letter, particularly where you seem to show uncertainty as to the relationship of Peter B. and Peter W. Conger. It seems that I did not make my interpretation of the census records, the will of Peter and the items from the Napanee paper sufficiently clear. I must now make a further explanation.

Let's take the Will of Peter Conger, dated 1871 and probated 1872. He makes no mention of parents, wife or children. I assume that parents were dead and that he was a bachelor. He mentions brothers and sister, as well as niece and nephews:

The census of 1851 mentions certain of the above children as having Peter B. Conger as parent, with Peter B.'s wife, D(eborah) (Williams). These I shall show in pencil on the above plotting of Conger children. According to the census, they were Peter (W.) Harris E(noch) John (already married).

Napanee Beaver of Dec. 7, 1900, states that Belyat Conger was a son of Peter (B.) Conger, a stone mason for years.

Thus, if Belyat Conger was son of Peter Conger, he, according to the will of Peter (Jr.), was brother of John, Harris, Enoch & Peter, the maker of the will.

Therefore Peter, father of Belyat, must also be father of Peter, Jr (maker of the will), John, Harris and Enoch (see red lines).

There is another error in your figuring. Peter B., according to the census records, was 61 in 1851, which would have him born in 1791. This agrees with the cemetery record, supplied by you, in which Peter B. Conger died in 1852, aged 61 years. This was the year after the census of 1851, which census supplied the age the next birthday. So these two Peter B.'s, he of the graveyard and he of the census, were one and the same person.

By now you must see that the Peter who made the will who made the will in 1871 is NOT the Peter who died in 1852. He is his son, the one mentioned in the census of 1851 as the son of Peter B., aged 23 at that time. He is the Peter W., maker of the will, being only 42 or 43 at the time of his death. Your letter made the statement that Peter B. Conger was born in 1781. This is wrong--it was 1791.

I note your statement that John, Sabra and Rachel Conger crossed into Canada in 1812. It is possible that this John was the father of Peter B. Conger, the stone mason of Richmond Township. It appears to me that further research into their background must be made in U. S. My first suggestion is that you review the census records of New York and New Jersey for 1790, 1801 and 1811 for all Congers. Then, a similar review of the census of 1821 will show certain families missing. These families either removed to other parts or the head of family had died. This will help to eliminate certain families from further search. Then, your efforts should be concentrated on most likely families, reviewing church records as a first step.

I can add that David, the Tory, Conger was born in Piscataway, N. J., in 1731, and was living at Coldenham, in Orange County (then Ulster County) in 1787. This village, or community, is about ten miles west of Newburgh, N. Y. A search of the church records of Newburgh for the Revolutionary period should furnish information.

Something in your letter led me to believe that there were histories of the Conger. Is this so? If so, surely they must give some clues.

I shall make further search in the files of the Napanee Beaver. And I hope to find further information. Whatever I find will reach you in due time.

Yours sincerely,

PS/

Please note the obituary notice of Belyat Conger, which I sent to you previously. In it you will see that Belyat was born in Richmond Township on Feb. 17, 1820. Although his name is not found in the census for Richmond, because he lived elsewhere, likely in Napanee, he is listed as a brother of Peter Conger, the maker of the will of 1871. He is also called the only remaining son of the late Peter Conger, according to the item in the Napanee Beaver for 1900. Such being the case, the Peter who was his father must have been the Peter B. of the census of 1851. At the same time he was a brother of Peter, of the will of 1871. This Peter was Peter W., son of Peter B. Does this explanation make the relationship clearer, or does it make it worse?

Dear Dr. Burleigh -

823 Lexington Ave.
New York 21, N.Y.

Thank you so much for the wonderful discoveries - I was very much excited about them - and pleased to at last have proof of who Peter Conger really was - and to be able to place the names of Enoch and Harris accurately -

If you feel like devoting any more time to it, I would like to know from where Peter Conger came "in his early youth." The oldest living in the family say it was from New York City - (or near) and my research at the library here states Woodbridge, N. J. - as the original place - in 1669 - when John Conger 1st, arrived there "with wife Mary and one son Enoch" what I really would like to establish is the connection between Peter Conger and her earlier family -

I should very much like also to know something about the other side of my mother's family - the Maxwells - Robert Maxwell - for whom I am named, came to Canada from Ireland in the (see chart) early 1800's - and married Mary (Fasey) and that seems to be all the information I can find - In New York I find no mention of Maxwell, except one: Robert Maxwell, stone cutter, ~~was~~ in the census of N.Y.C. of 1843 - Perhaps you might run across something in hapshire -

Back to Congers - I think I wrote before the only reference I found in many volumes on Conger in the library ~~was~~ which comes near to what we want is on David Conger * "David the Tory son of Gershom went to Canada in 1783 with part of family and settled in Pa. Edward Island(?) then," in 1787 settled in

P. Edward County, crossing to Cape Vincent - Oldest Methodist church in Ontario built on land given by Stephen Conger -

John, Sabra and Rachel Conger crossed into Canada in 1812 -

Ezekiel Conger in War of 1812 -

Hoping this may provide another clue for you - I'll close hoping you may find time for a little further research - There is, of course, no rush.

Enclosed is a check for $10.00 which you may need -

It seems I must have sent you two charts on the family thus far - If so, would you please send one back?

Very truly, yours,
Robert M. Earle

Former Resident Passes

The remains of the late Mrs. Manly Conger who passed away in Syracuse where she had resided with her daughter for many years were brought to the home of her brother-in-law William Conger, Dundas Street West, and the funeral service was conducted by Rev. Richard M. Millard in the absence of Rev. R. T. Richards who is in Indianapolis for the month of August.

Aug. 21, 1937

Interment was made in Riverview cemetery and the pall-bearers were Arthur Rook, Bert Hudson, A. H. Oliver, Claude Alcombrack, H. L. Shannon and R. B. Thompson.

Friends in goodly numbers who had known Mrs. Conger when she resided on the Deseronto Road and in Napanee were present for the service.

The late Mrs. Conger who had reached the ripe old age of 82 years had been confined to her bed for the past 17 weeks. She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. Maxwell and was a native of Richmond Township. Her parents resided on the Deseronto Road and after her marriage to Manly Conger, they continued to reside on the Deseronto Road and eventually moved to Napanee where Mr. Conger plied his trade, that of bricklayer.

Mr. Conger passed away in Napanee about 30 years ago, and Mrs. Conger continued to reside here until ten years after the death of her husband, when she left for Syracuse which had been her home since that time.

The deceased will be remembered by many of the townspeople and she was very highly respected. She is survived by a family of two, Mack Conger in Richmond Township, and Mrs. Earl of Syracuse. A brother James Maxwell resides in Albany, N.Y.

On looking over the inscriptions I copied last summer it just galled me who realizing that while the will you sent was dated 1874 - the stone of Peter B. Conger says "died 1852" - 61 yrs old! - Do you suppose then could he be the father of Peter W.?

All the names listed in the will seem to fit perfectly - as mother recollects - If this is the father of Peter W. could it be that he is buried under the broken stone?

A HISTORY OF The Conger Family

by D. K. REDNER

The old axiom that "Truth is Stranger than Fiction" has been proven to me so many times in these series of articles that I have even ceased to regard any discovery in the category of the unusual but one small incident this summer resulted in a more definite proof than usual and not only unbolted the door to more articles but opened it wide on some information which should be of great interest.

On the particular day I was loading gravel in the pit when a young couple drove in and I presumed they had in mind either to ask some information or place an order, but my presumption had pointed entirely in the wrong direction.

When it was discerned that they were talking to the party they were looking for, the young gentleman produced an ancient looking brown envelope which he said contained some very old records. He did not live in the county but had come down from Toronto on his holidays and after reading some of the previous articles along this line, was sure I might be interested. He was an employee of the Bell Telephone Co. in that city who had married a Prince Edward girl—Zelda Carter from near Alls-ville. Ed. Brawley informed me that he had secured the envelope from his older brother who, in turn, had had it passed on to him by his father. The latter had made the discovery in a very old desk which was about to be discarded.

DAVID CONGER was born at Pis- cataqua, N.J., in 1791. He was a brass founder and a silversmith by trade and after the close of the Revolutionary War he settled on a small farm in Ulster County, New York State.

LOYALTY to the Crown rendered his position unpleasant after the establishment of the new republic and in 1786 he came to Hallowell and purchased a lot with a mill site two miles east of Pictou. The next year he returned for his wife and family and brought with him iron and castings for a saw mill which he had in operation before the close of 1787. His next enterprise was to build a grist mill as the pioneers, up to that time, had to take their corn either to Kingston or Napanee to have it ground. Many were the dangers as they either went by canoe, drove across the treacherous ice in the winter or even carried the sacks on their backs when they were unable to avail themselves of any other method.

THE STRONG religious tendencies of David Conger led him always to keep in mind the interests of his church. He was a strong adherent of Methodism and one of his gifts to and 1823. The brown envelope handed me by Ed. Brawley contained these records intact in Stephen Conger's own handwriting.

HE WAS NOT ONLY regarded as a man of high moral standing in his community but he was endowed with a strong intellectuality. He was invariably offered a seat on the bench when the circuit judges held assize. It was the custom of that body to invite one or two well qualified men of the district to confer with them respecting local customs, boundaries, disputes, waterways, etc.

HE ALSO TOOK a keen interest in electricity when that science was still unknown to the settlers and his wife went so far as to make the statement that he must be out of his mind to waste time on such a trivial matter.

NO RECORDS are available to tell just how he met his wife but a story is told that his proposal was made to Mary Bates by sending a note all the way from Pictou to Cobourg by a special messenger on horse-back. That he received a favourable answer was proven by the fact that his wife, Mary Bates, bore him eight children, seven of whom attained maturity.

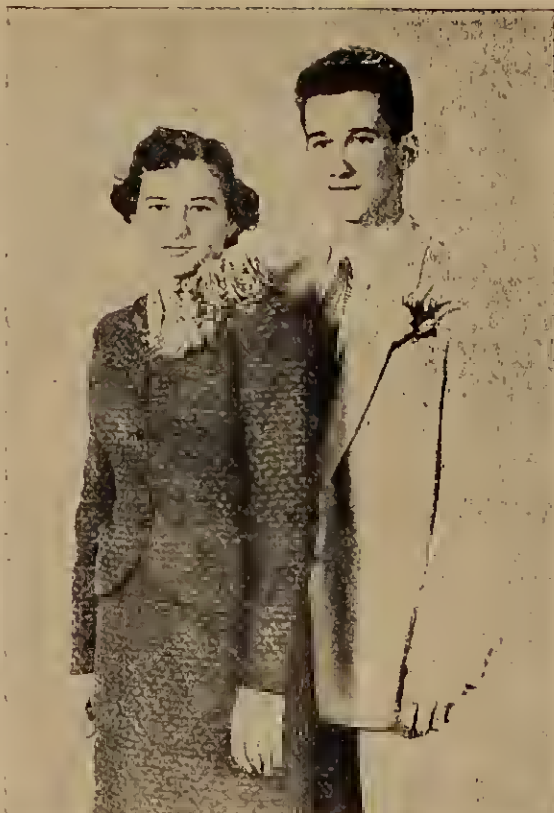

THE OLD PIONEER, David Conger, left many descendants in the Prince Edward district but the name of Conger, like so many more of the old pioneer names, is rapidly becoming only history. The only living residents carrying the family name living in the district to-day are Stephen B. and his sister Alice who at present reside on North Bowery Street in Pictou.

THE NAME OF Stephen has been a favourite in the Conger families, for not a generation has passed without adding one more member of the descendant families by that name.

NANCY LANGHORN, the eldest daughter and first child of the magistrate and his wife, married John P. Roblin. Mrs. W. H. R. Allison is a direct descendant.

DAVID STODDARD, grandfather of Stephen B. and Alice, married Elizabeth Benson. He took up 200 acres of land near Owen Sound for each of his sons—Stephen B., Nelson Bates, Roger David, William Manley and James A. but none of the second generation remained there and the property all passed into other hands. Stephen B. married Eliza Bolton and this couple were the parents of the present residents of the town.

PRETTY WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. John Leslie Walker are shown above following their wedding on Nov. 2nd. The bride was formerly Elizabeth Ann (Betty) Jarvis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jarvis, Pictou, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nobel Walker, Pictou.—(Hodgson Studio photo, Gazette engraving)

ROGER B., second son of the magistrate, became a member of Parliament for the county but owing to laxity in the operation of his personal business did not attain the financial success of his brother David Stoddard. He married Hannah Bryant of Ameliasburg.

RACHAEL MARRIED Anthony Herrington and lived in Ameliasburg. Their grandson was W. S. Herrington, K.C., of Napanee who was extremely well known throughout the whole Bay of Quinte district. To add a personal note Walt Herrington got his early education at our local seat of learning, S.S. No. 7, Ameliasburg and sat in the seat with my father when he started school.

HULDAH S. married Owen Roblin. The latter figured very prominently in articles a couple of years back on Roblin's Mills as he was the industrial magnate of the village at that time.

ELIZA B. married Rev. Daniel McMillen whose sons were at one time owners of the Prince Edward Railway.

MARY G. married Peter Brickman and also settled in Ameliasburg. A third son, Stephen died at an early age.

DAVID S., a brother of Stephen the magistrate, married Julia Owens and settled in Hallowell. They had eight children one of whom, John O., was the father of John W. who at one time was associated with the Pictou Gazette. The ownership of the land where the golf club now is, still rested with the Conger estate when purchased by the club. Another grandson of David S., E. Marshall Conger, was also associated with the Gazette. Wilson S. son of Peter D. and grandson of the pioneer David settled in Peterboro and was elected to parliament on several occasions for the county and eventually became its sheriff.

IN ADDITION to Stephen B., son of David Stoddard, there was Nelson Bates who married Melissa Cronk. He died while on the property near Pictou and his widow moved to Toronto. Roger David married Adeline Brickman and all his three children have also crossed the Great Divide. One daughter, Beattie, married Geo. A. Kingston, a Toronto lawyer. James A. married Elizabeth Dempsey of Albany. He lived in Belleville for a time but afterward moved to Ottawa. Karl B., the youngest of his family, is the only surviving son. William Manley married his sister-in-law, the widow of Stephen B. after the latter's death. One daughter, Hester, married David Bryant.

WILLIAM MANLEY, who married Stephen's widow, conducted a nursery business for years on the property next to the site of the chapel. He learned the business in Syracuse and raised apple and fruit trees as well as grapes and many other lines of nursery stock. He, like many of the modern firms, had agents on the road selling his stock. The boys had all left home before their stepfather died suddenly of a heart attack in 1909 and his sudden passing left Alice and her mother in possession of a business which they were unable to continue so it was sold and the house on Bowery Street was purchased.

IT WOULD BE quite unfair to leave you this week without taking at least a glimpse at Stephen Conger's marriage records which have been very legibly written and carefully preserved. According to newspaper clippings from Toronto daily papers these records were deposited with Dr. J. S. W. McCullough, Deputy Registrar-General of the province in February, 1913. How they ever became separated from that department is a mystery. They were secured for the department from the widow of Nelson Bates Conger names well known in not only Prince Edward County, but in many parts of the province at the present time. One of the records is that of the marriage of Richard G. Clute and Sarah Ann Goldsmith both of Hallowell. Produced a license from His Excellency Francis Gore, Lieutenant Governor of Upper Canada, bearing date of the eighth day of March, 1810 and solemnized on the twelfth day of the same month by Mr. Stephen Conger C. P.

THE LETTERS C. P., we are led to believe, stood for Commissioner of the Peace. These two letters were affixed to each signature until his twenty-fifth marriage when two are recorded by just plain Stephen Conger. All those after this contain the letters J. P. so it was apparent that he received a promotion at this time.

THESE RECORDS are not without touches of humour as can be gathered from the following:—

No. 42. Married Jacob Cooney and Susanah Pine both of Ameliasburg on the 22nd day of September, 1816. (Banns published) By me Stephen Conger J. P.

N.B.: Travelled 10 miles through the mud and got nothing for it.

ON THE COVER of what was once a booklet we read: Stephen Conger, Esquire, Sworn into the office of a magistrate at Kingston 12th of July, 1803. Record of marriages solemnized by me, Stephen Conger, Esq., after publication.

No. 1. Married Charles Huff of Adolphustown and Elizabeth Rustel of Thurlow both in the Midland District of Upper Canada on the 26th day of August 1803.

No. 53. Married George Goodwill and Betsy York both of Hallowell, 10th October 1820. Coloured people.

This marriage contained no signature.

OCCASIONALLY he made mention of the fee received and records having received one guinea for the marriage of Jesse Henderson and Susan Eliza Thurlow both of Hallowell this twenty-fourth day of December 1818. By me—Stephen Conger J. P.

ROGER B., second son of the magistrate, became a member of Parliament for the county but owing to laxity in the operation of his personal business did not attain the financial success of his brother David Stoddard. He married Hannah Bryant of Ameliasburg.

RACHAEL MARRIED Anthony Herrington and lived in Ameliasburg. Their grandson was W. S. Herrington, K.C., of Napanee who was extremely well known throughout the whole Bay of Quinte district. To add a personal note Walt. Herrington got his early education at our local seat of learning, S.S. No. 7, Ameliasburg and sat in the seat with my father when he started school.

HULDAH S. married Owen Roblin. The latter figured very prominently in articles a couple of years back on Roblin's Mills as he was the industrial magnate of the vil-

Mr. Robert M. Earle,
823 Lexington Ave.,
New York, N. Y.

Dear sir:

Herewith the result of research into the parentage of John Conger, father of Manley Conger, namely

1. Obituary of Belyst Conger.
2. Census records of Congers of Richmond.
3. Will of Peter Conger, 1871.

Item one I found in the Napanee Beaver at Lemox & Addington Hist. Society.

Item two came from the Public Archives, Ottawa.

Item three I found in the Surrogate Records, Japanese.

The note re: the father of Belyat Conger is established as being Peter. Belyat was apparently living in Lapensee, for which I did not request census records. This can be done later, if desired.

The census records establish that Peter, Harris and E(noch) were sons of Peter B. Conger. John evidently was already married to Ellen, with children: Henry, Sarah L., Priscilla, John, Emanuel, Rachel and Mary E.

The will of Peter Conger establishes that John was his brother. Therefore, Peter B. was the father of John, and grandfather of your Emanuel. My interpretation is given herewith, graphically:

Peter B. married 1st Mary Smith, 2nd Deborah Williams.
born 1790-1                                      born 183; died 1864.

Children born before 1927 belong to Mary Smith

Delyat	John mar.	Ellen Daboe	Henrietta	Peter	Ann	Isaac	M. A.
b. 1820	b. 1822		b. 1827	b. 1829	wife of	b. 1834	b. 1839
d. 1907	d. 1897			father of	Wiles
				Will	Baldwin
				1877

I could be wrong in my interpretation. In Rev. Robert McCall's Parish Register is this record:

Henrietta, dau. of Peter Conger & Mary Smith, of Richmond, bapt. 17 Feb., 1837.

I assume that she is sister of Peter, John, Ann, Harris, Alynd, etc.

On my trip to Napanee last week I visited the Registry Office but failed to find a will after reviewing the several lots later owned by Congress. Then, I went to the Surrogate Court, and fortunately they had what we were looking for. I used your money paying for these searches and for the photostatic copy of the will.

If there is anything further that I can do, please let me know. All I lacked to prove to me with satisfaction was the inscriptions on the tombstones, but I expect that you already have these. I shall copy them in the spring, just for my own satisfaction, unless you send me a copy before that. I am taking the privilege of clarifying indistinct passages in the will.

Yours sincerely,

H. C. Burleigh.

According to information available the following men applied for, and received, crown grants of land on behalf of their wives as Loyalists. In each instance, may I please be provided with the name of wife and reasons why such grant was made. Photostatic copies of applications are not necessary.

May I also be favored with all mention of the name of Conger in the census records of 1851 and 1861 for the Township of Richmond, County of Lennox and Addington.

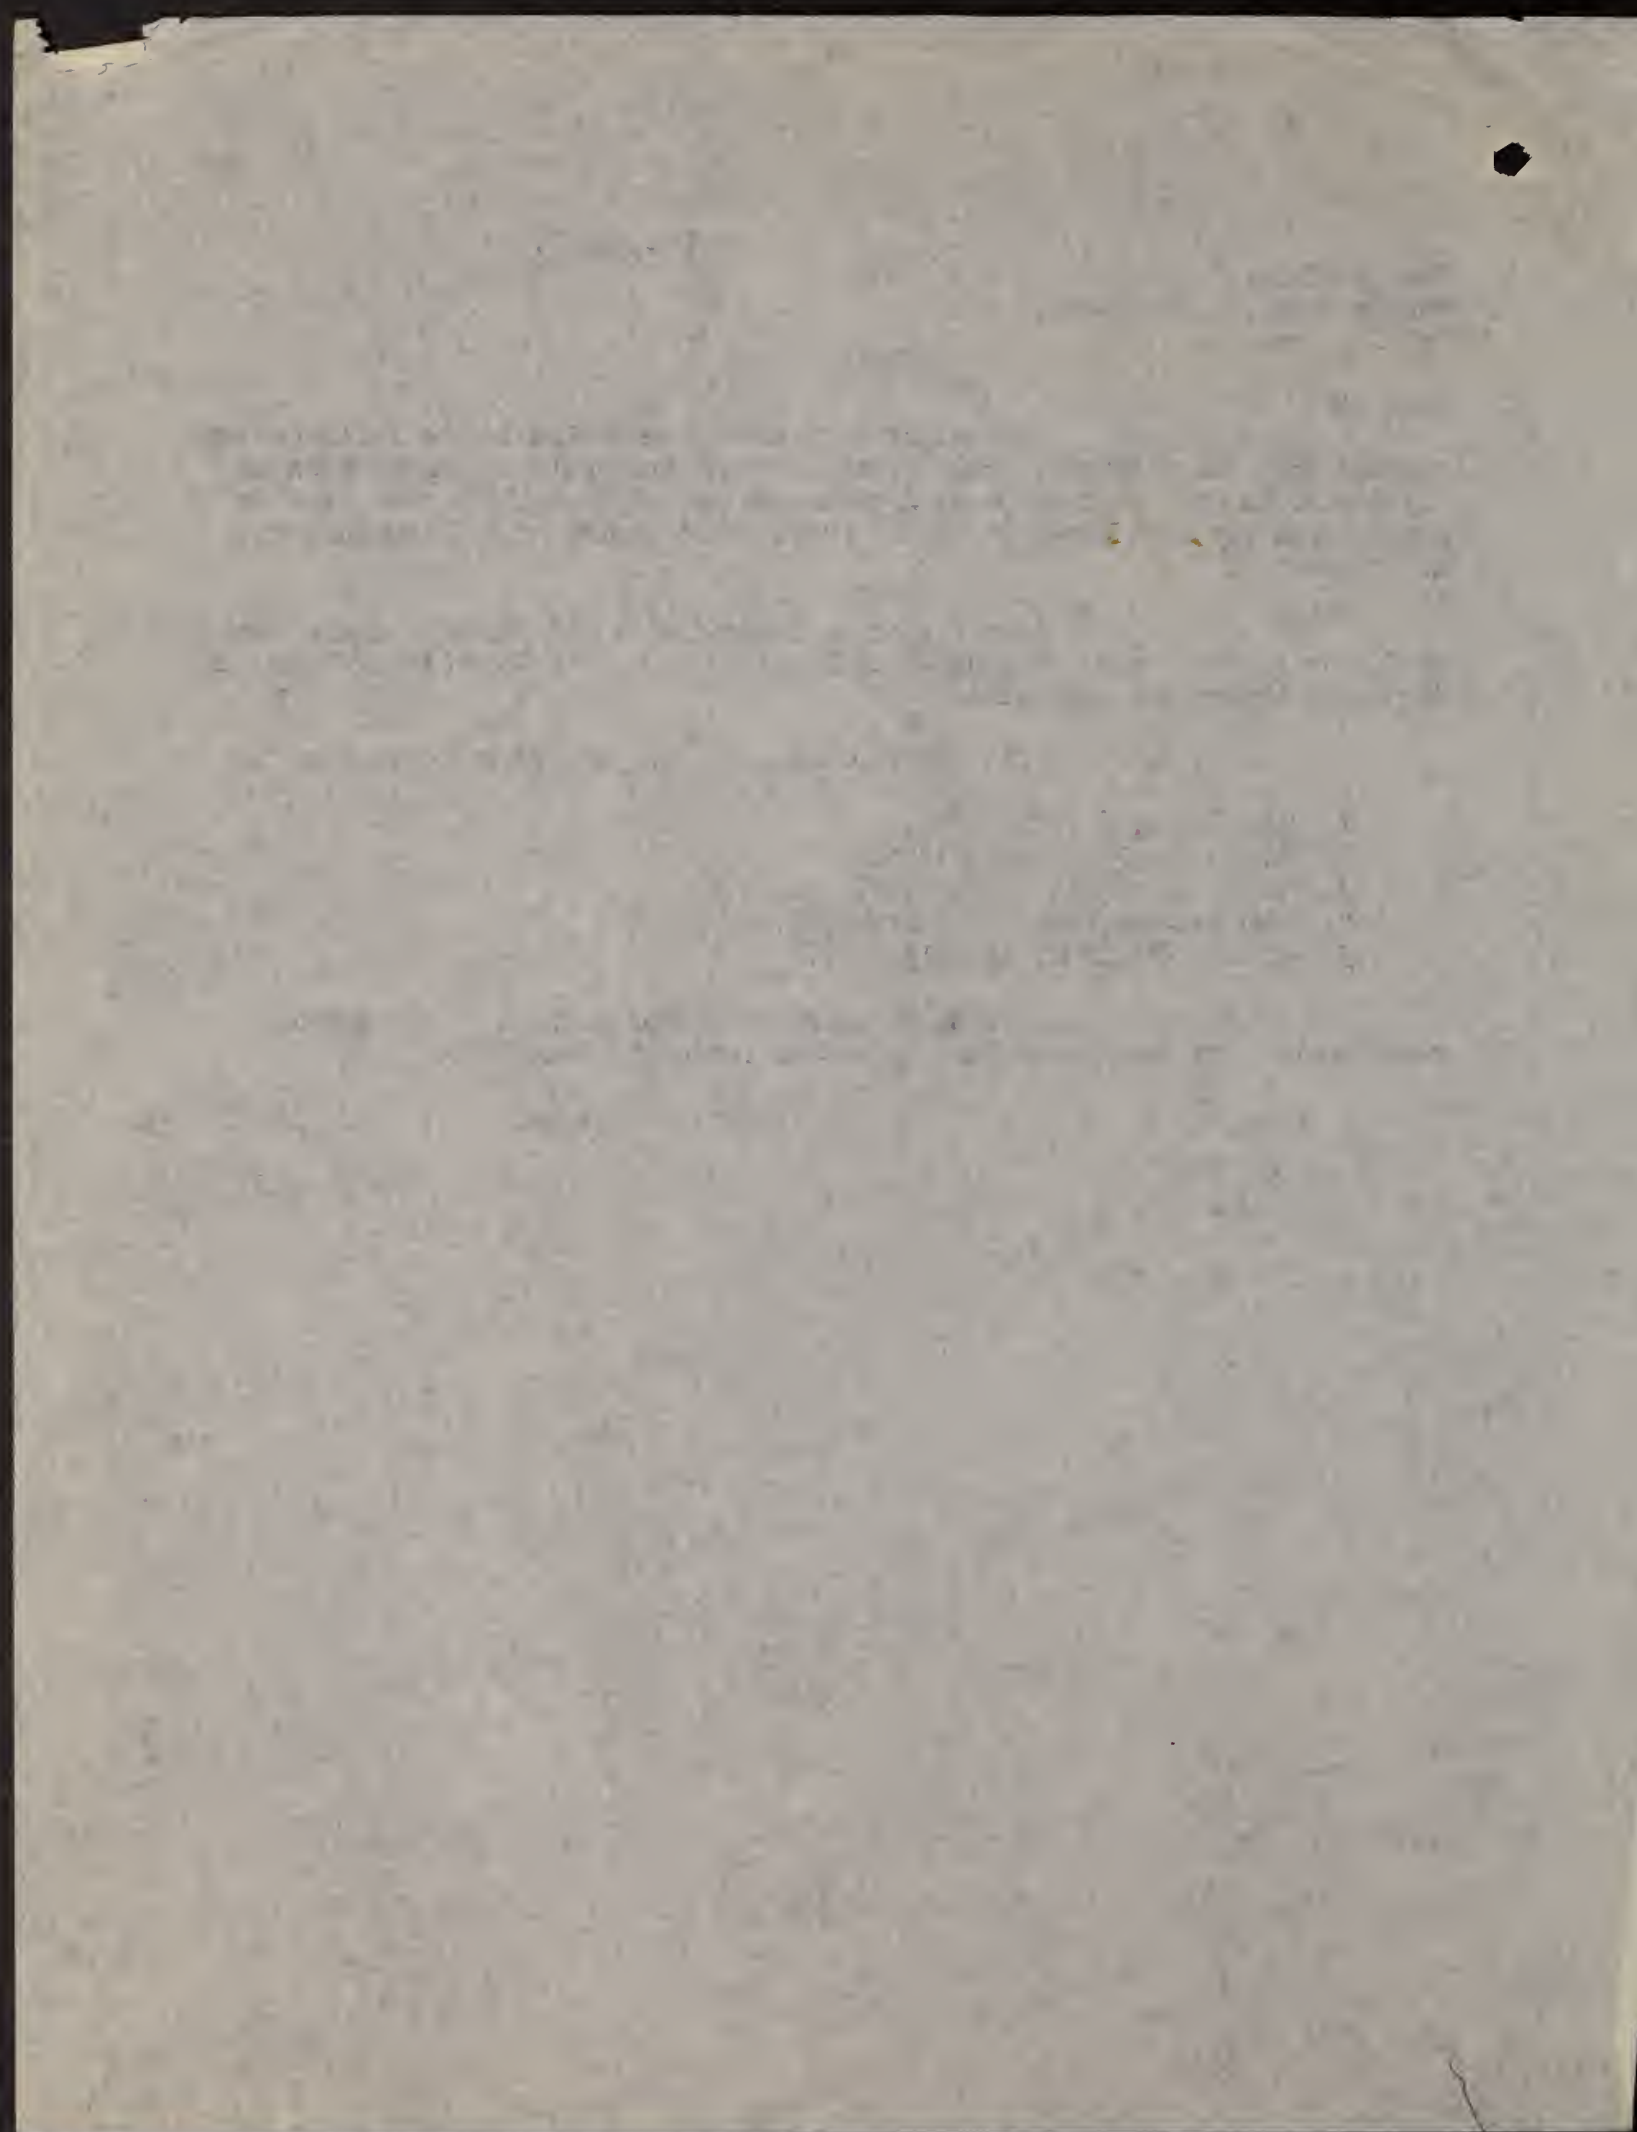

The names referred to in paragraph one (above) are

1. John Sills, 8 July, 1797.
2. Martin Hough, 5 July, 1826.
3. Victor Bowen, 12 July, 1797.
4. John Schermerhorn, 12 July, 1797.

Dear Dr. Beerleigh -

Excused you will find a check to begin whatever work you feel may uncover a clue to part of the Conger family I am trying to find -

I have read everything in the New York library which refers to Conger - many Congressional Records make frequent mention of the name but aside from the facts listed here I find nothing which seems to point to any particular branch -

① John Conger 1st was a soldier of the Commonwealth Army and came to Woodbridge, N. J. from England in 1667, with his wife Mary and one son Enoch (Enech). He died about September, 1712 -

② Mention of Enoch Conger born

Feb. 18th, 1834.

③ Mention of a Mauley Conger (my grandfather's name) born Sept. 12, 1844.

④ David Conger known as "David the Tory" son of Gershom Conger, went to Canada in 1783 with part of his family and settled in Prince Edward County -

⑤ David settled in Prince Edward County in 1787, crossing from U.S. to Cape Vincent - thence into Canada -

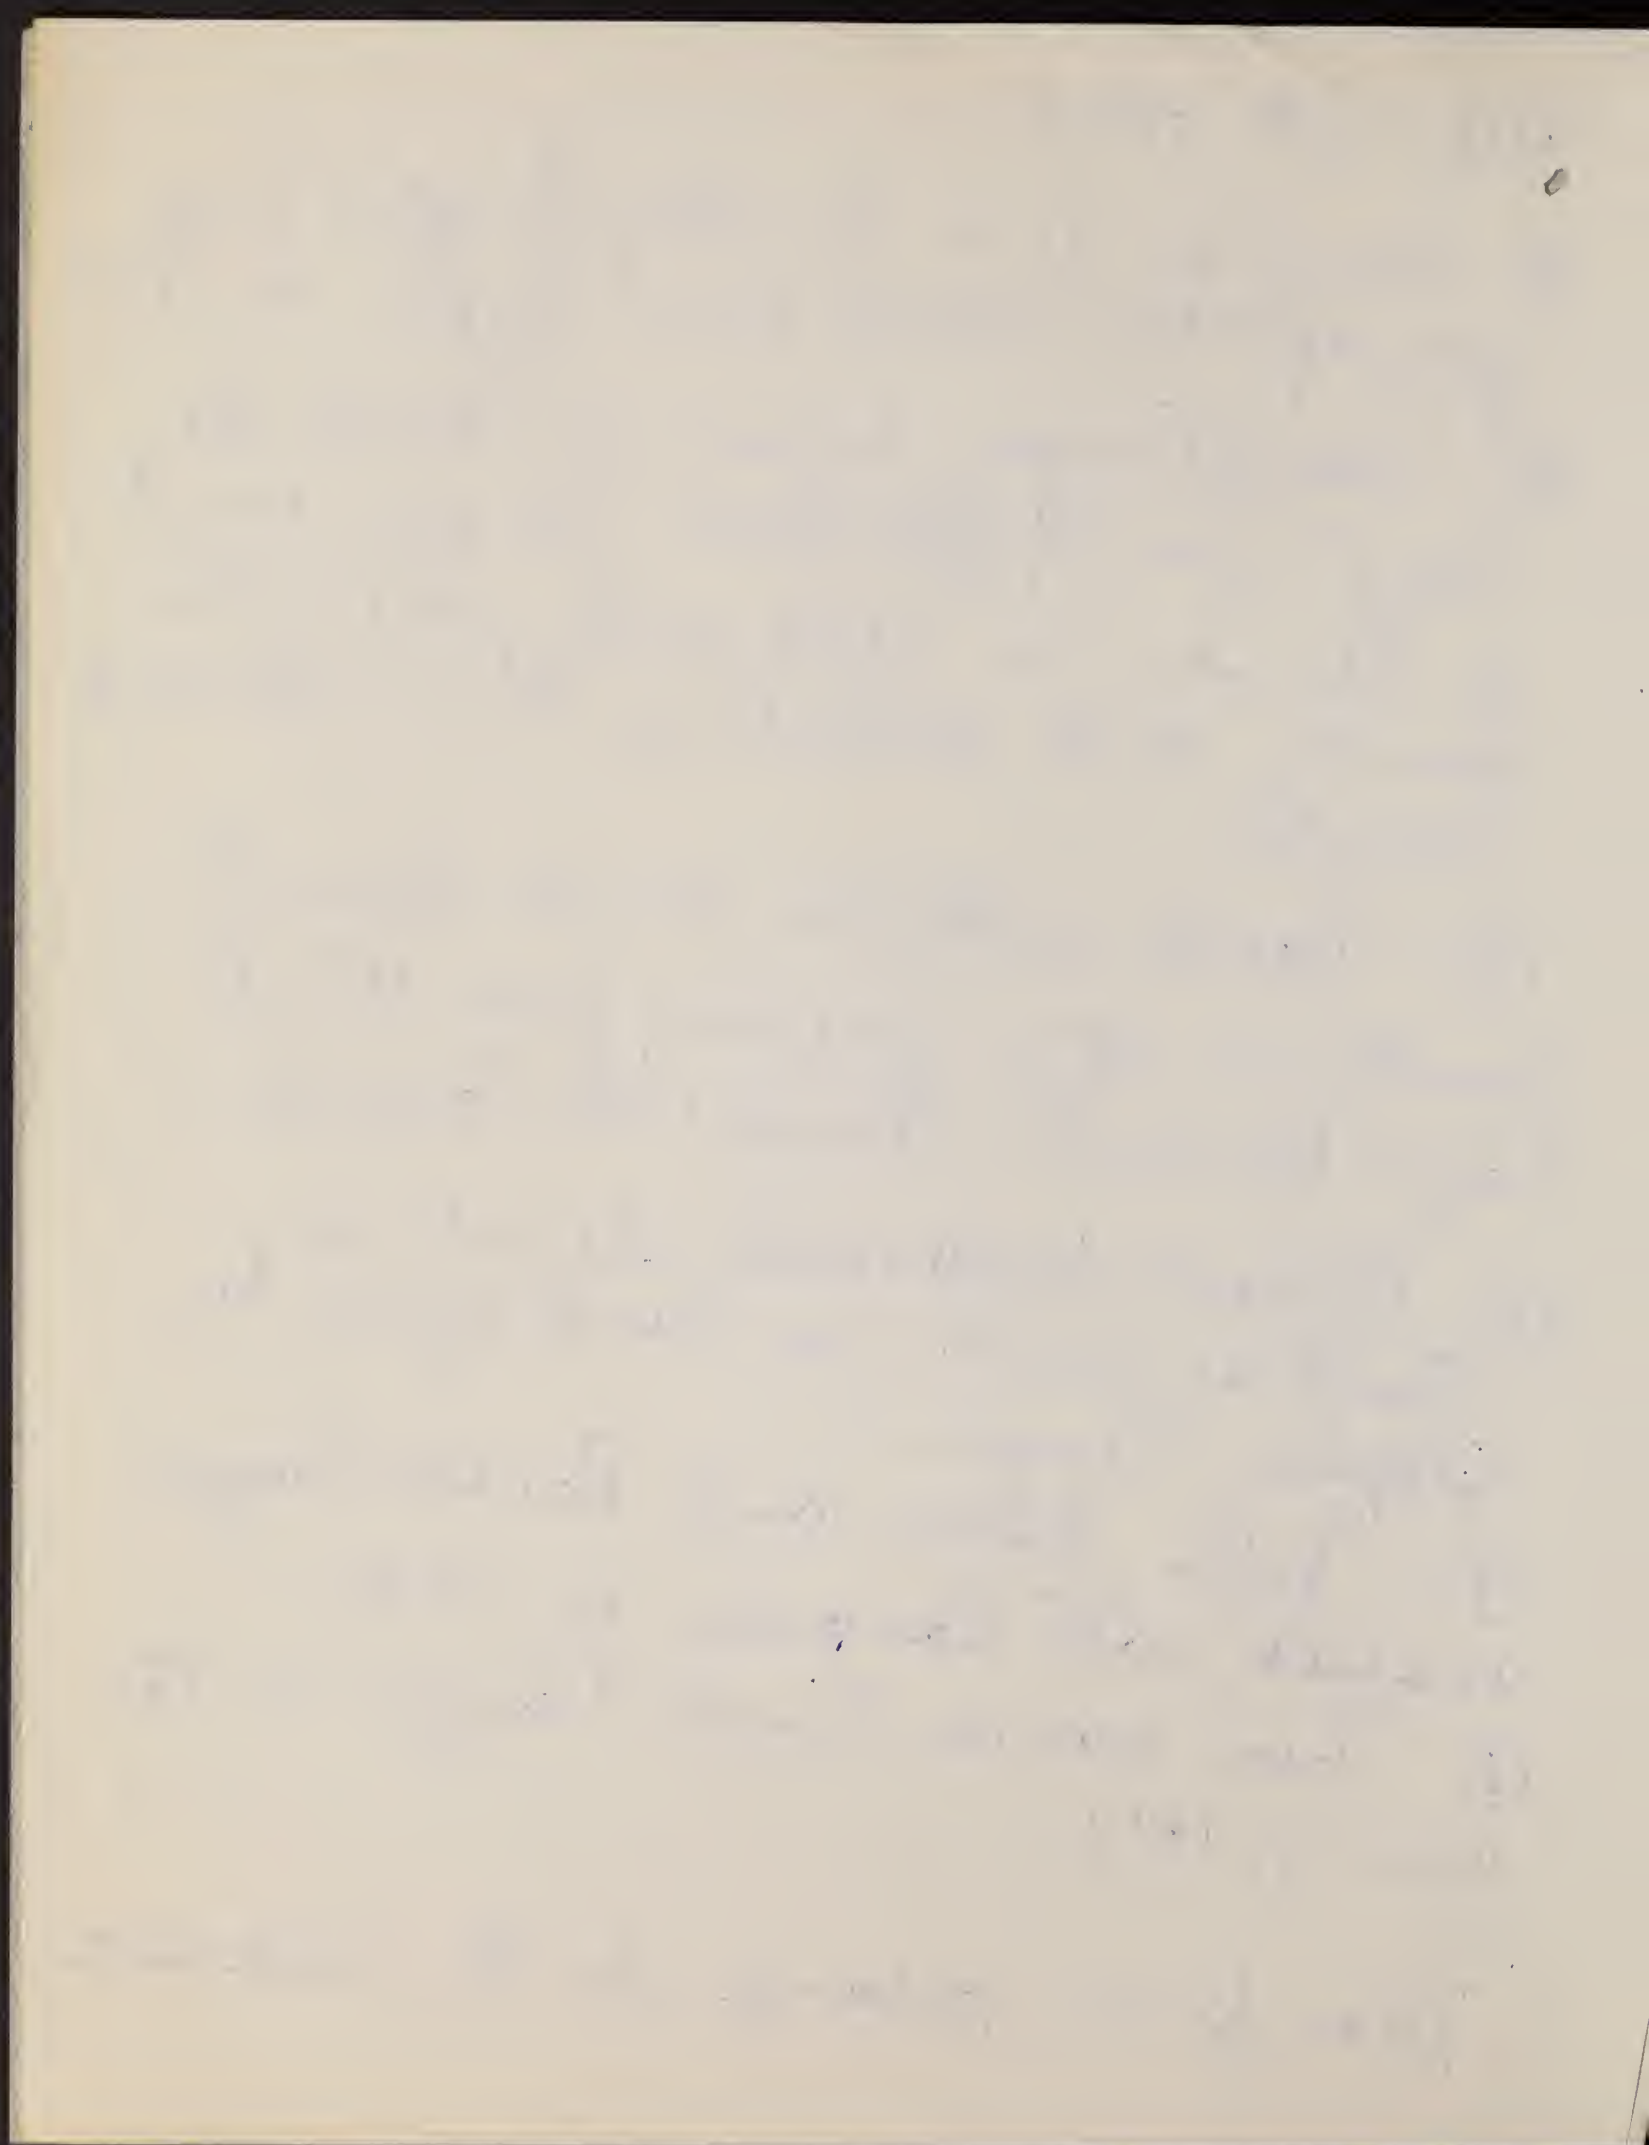

⑥ Oldest Methodist Church in Ontario built on land given by Stephen Conger -

⑦ John, Sabra and Rachel Conger crossed into Canada in 1812 -

⑧ There was an Enoch Conger in the war of 1812 - can uncover - If I did not send you a chart of the family as I know it here is one - I didn't do it very well, but perhaps you can read it.

I hope you can give me a clue

Dear sir:

In reply to your recent letter relative to the Conger family I am sorry to inform you that I have no proof of parentage of John Conger. Perhaps if you had been a bit more specific as to dates, I might have been in a better position to advise you.

I can suggest the following:

American sources--Census for 1790, 1800, 1810 and 1820 for Congers in N. J.

Canadian sources--Census for 1851 and 1861.

Probate of Conger wills, 1820-1890.

Land records in Richmond Township.

Cemetery records, Richmond Township and Hapance.

I am in a position to be of assistance, provided you are willing to pay for necessary expense. If this appeals to you, you might put a limit, say $10.00, on the amount you wish to expend in search. This, of course, is up to you.

I am sorry that I have been of such little assistance to you.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Dr. Brewster,

I have for some time been interested in tracing my family line - and recently in Waponee, at the Historical Society - Miss Van Alstyne suggested that you might be of help -

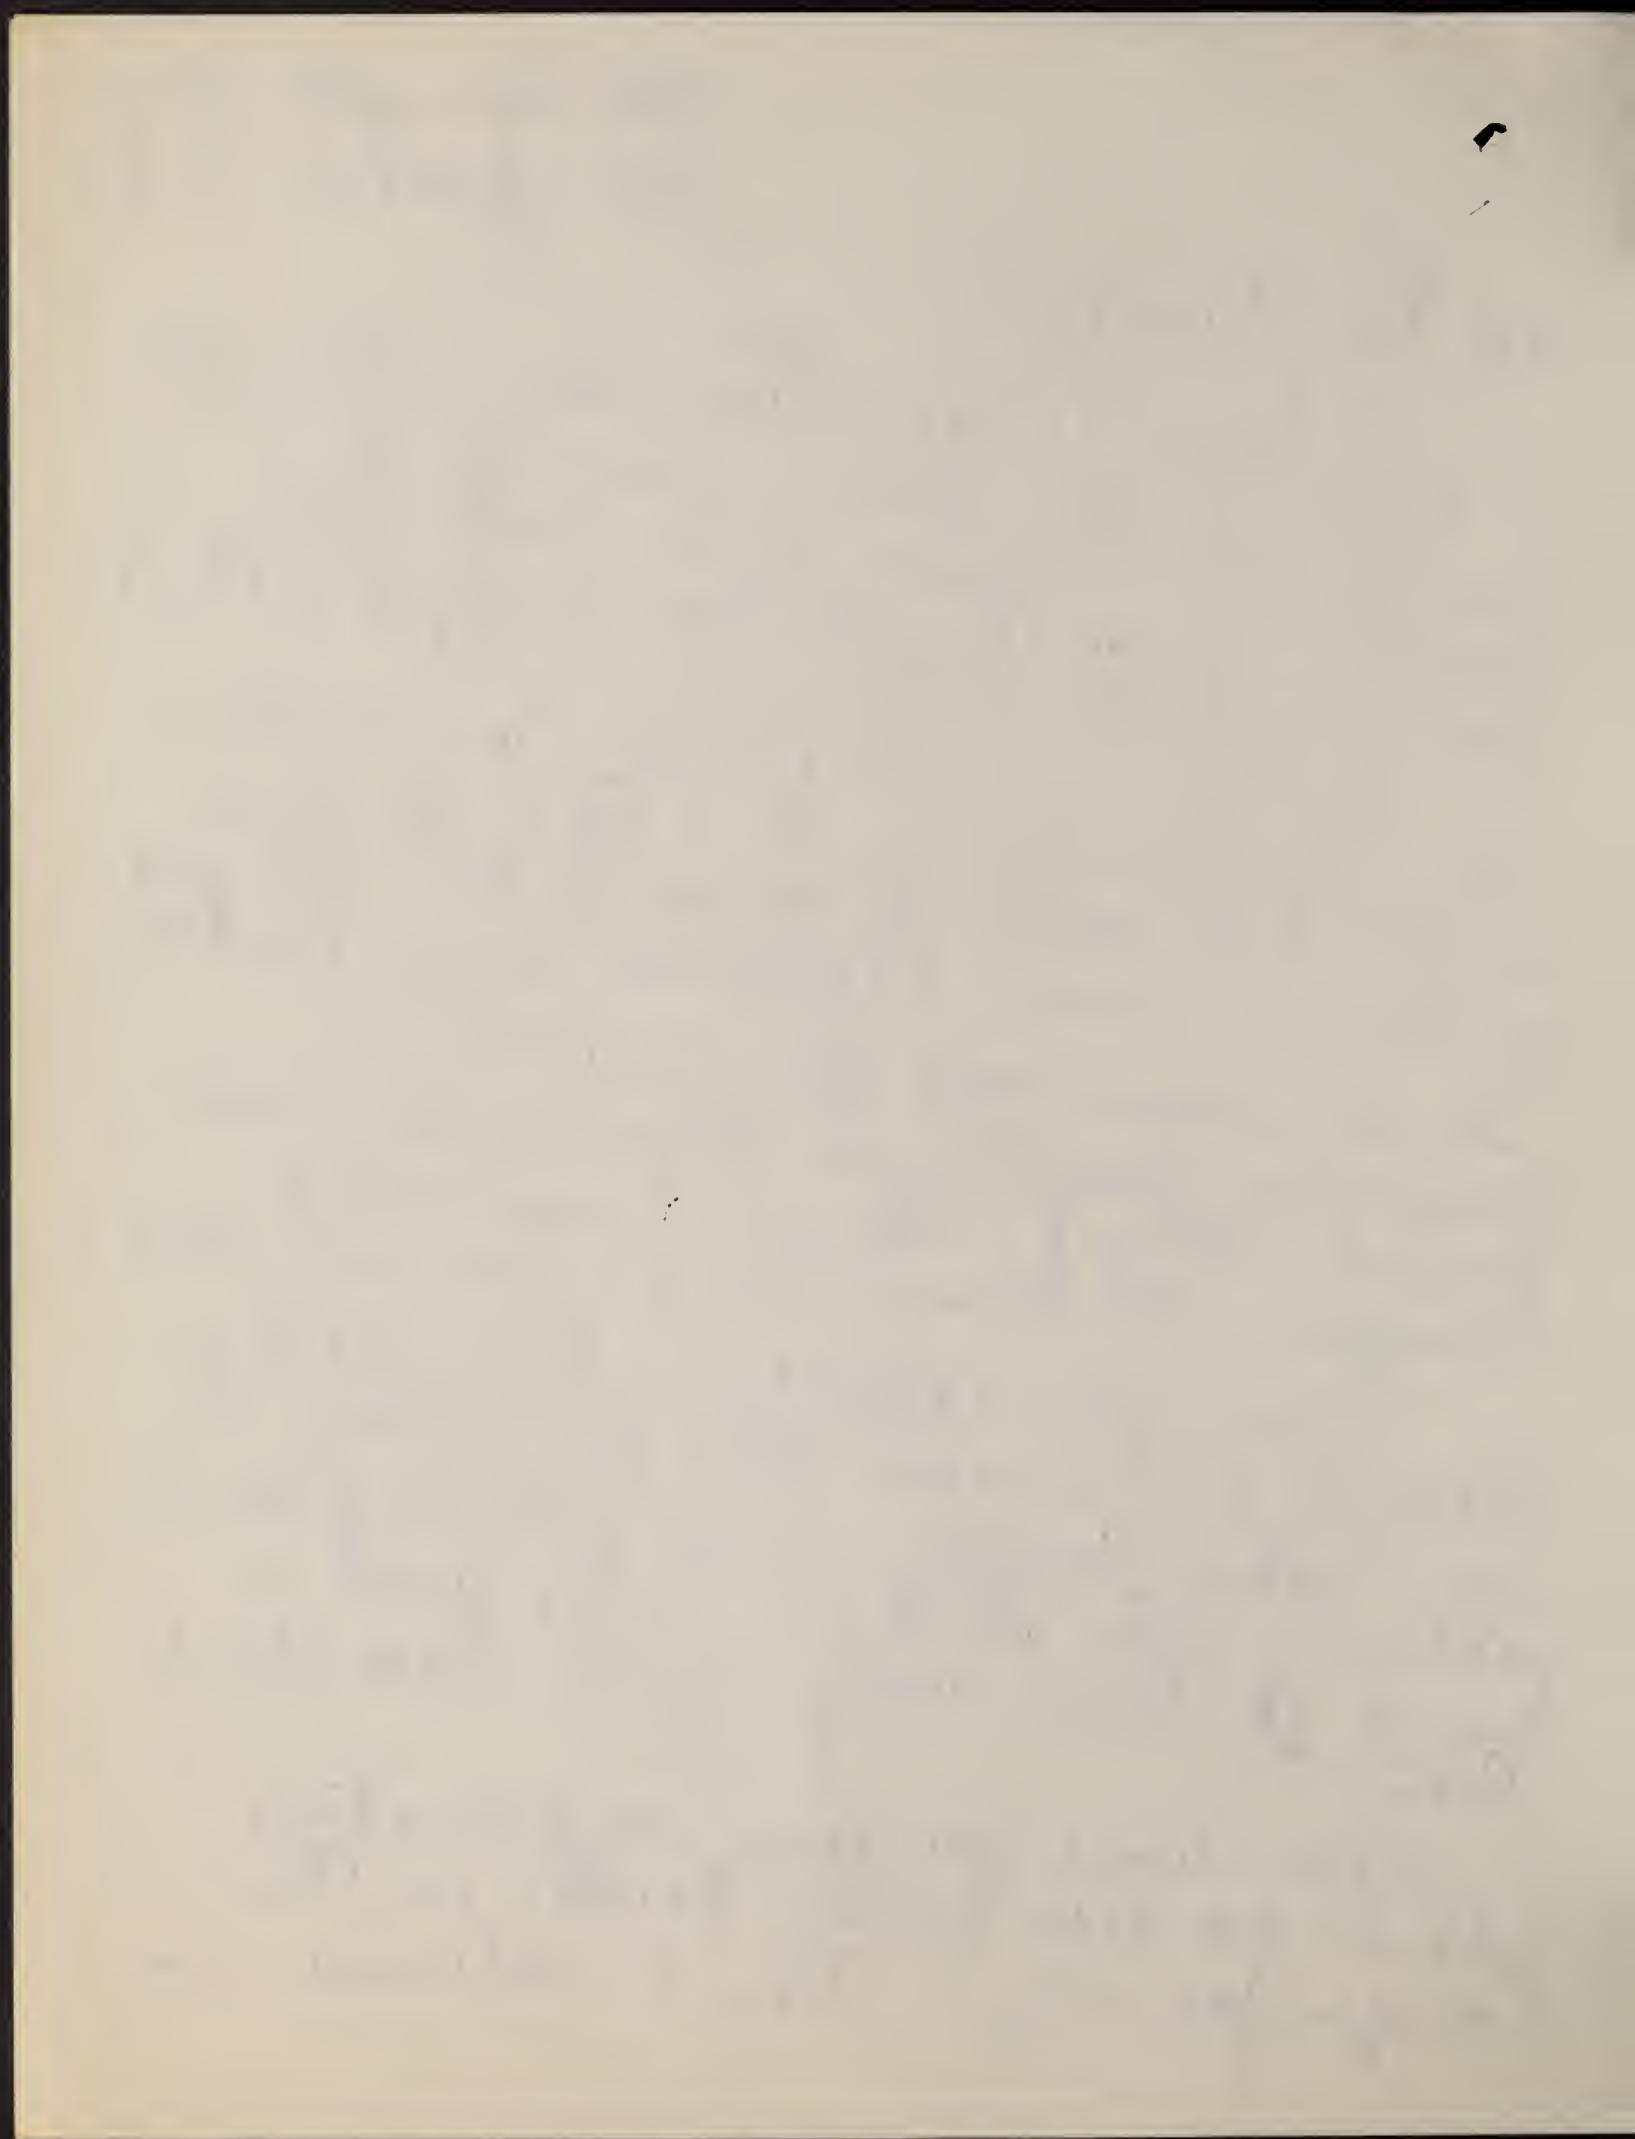

The name is CONGER (my mother's side of the family) and I have the line established back as far as John, Belyat or Beriat and Elizabeth Conger Barthe -

In the same old family plot in Riverview Cemetery in Waponee are also buried Peter B. Harris, and Enoch Conger, all buried in or around 1852 -

Can you establish that either Peter B. or Enoch was the father of one John Conger, my great grand-father - who died in 1897 and is said to have come from New York City - ?

Also have you any information about earlier antecedents in this Conger family? The 2 volumes in

There are to certify that - a beaver hereof, - David Coyer who is consequence of a recommendation he had for me last year, went to Calanaguan, to view a Country; that from the encouragement then given him there, & by attachment to a preference for a Govt to formerly lived with to present, he has sold his estate here & is now about moving his family & stock of cattle, to settle under a Govt of his British Majesty.

It is proper therefore to repeat, that I have been for many yrs well acquainted & so well David Coyer & know him to be a very honest man, (a Beaver Hunter by trade).

That throughout a late war he was a firm friend of a British Constitution, that neither he nor any of his family would do any Military Duty on a other side of a question, but what they were compelled to do, & as I have been well informed, he served as Ensign in a Coy of Militia in a other Province near Jersey, but he moved to this neighbourhood.

He takes to him at this time his wife, four sons three daughters & two grandsons, & proposes if he meets a encouragement, to send for his son in-law, George Williams who, though his relatives were in a late war, opposed to a Govt of Britain, yet the Williams adhered to a Constitution principles of his father-in-law.
